

MATT RATTERMAN
Frie, Arndt & Danborn P.C.
7400 Wadsworth Boulevard, Suite 201
Arvada, Colorado 80003
Tel: 303-420-1234; Fax: 303-431-7644
Email: matratterman@frieardt.com

EDUCATION:

J.D., University of Denver College Of Law, December, 2000. Elected to Order of St. Ives.

B.S. (Business Administration), Regis College Denver, Colorado, 1985.

University Of Notre Dame. Completed three years in American Studies / Communication Arts.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY:

January, 2016, to present: Frie, Arndt & Danborn P.C. Civil practice focusing on Trusts and Estates Law, Probate Law, Elder Law, Family Law and Real Estate Law.

October, 2003, to December, 2015: Of Counsel, Semple, Farrington & Everall, P.C. Practice concentrated on Federal and State Litigation, School Law, Corporate Law, Government Compliance, Real Estate Law, Employment Law, Contract Law and Collective Bargaining. Appeared before and presented oral arguments in State and U.S. District Courts, Colorado Court of Appeals and Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals.

July, 2003, through May, 2005: Associate, Solomon Pearl Blum Heymann & Stich LLP. Civil practice emphasizing corporate law and civil litigation, with concentration in commercial disputes, probate/estate administration, real estate and collections matters. Co-author and presenter of 2004 Business Law Update for Colorado Bar Association.

May, 2002, through June, 2003: Associate, Joseph C. Cohen, P.C. General practice representing clients in business formation and transactions, civil litigation, employment law, family law, probate and real estate law.

January, 2001, through May, 2002, and Summer, 2000: Associate, Kutak Rock LLP. Counsel clients in Corporate Law practice group. Specialized in real estate transactions, title review, lease and conveyance documentation, real estate finance, commercial transactions, formation, modification, transfer and dissolution of business entities. Contributing writer and researcher for Colorado Methods of Practice Real Estate chapters.

Summer, 1999: Law Clerk to Hon. John L. Kane, Jr., United States District Court. Performed legal research; drafted memoranda relating to complex civil cases. Prepared draft memorandum on motion involving challenge to automatic annual Congressional pay increases; opinion published as 54 F. Supp. 2d 1014 (D. Colo. 1999).

2004-2006: Instructor, Front Range Community College. Taught in paralegal training program, delivering instruction in classes in Civil Litigation and Contract Law.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS:

Admitted to practice in all Colorado state courts, U.S. District Court (Colorado) and 10th Circuit Court of Appeals. Member of American, Colorado and Denver Bar Associations. Member of the Family Law, Elder Law, Trusts and Estates and Real Estate Sections of the Colorado Bar Association. Chairman, Colorado Council of School Board Attorneys, 2011-12. Board member and officer, Applewood Valley Association, 2002-2006.